

Basking Shark

The Basking Shark is the second largest shark in the world and they can grow up to 8 metres.

They eat plankton and small crustaceans by swimming with their mouth open.

The Basking Shark has 1,500 teeth ; and it can open its mouth up to 1 metre!

If the basking shark was put in a cage it would die because it has to keep moving to breathe.