

Goal 16

Peace, Justice, and Strong institutions

BY MIA BUCKLEY

What are Global Goals?

Global goals are made to improve our lives. Goal 16 is about peace, justice, and strong institutions.

What is peace ?

Peace means societal friendships and harmony in the absence of hostility and violence in a social sense, peace is commonly used to mean a lot of conflict and freedom from fear to violence.

Peace is where there is a time when there is no fights and wars.

Some countries do not have peace the country Afghanistan is a non peace country followed along by Syria, Gaza, Ukraine, Russia and the Republic of Congo.

What is Justice?

Justice means that people are treated fairly. Denmark is the world that has the most justice. Mostly African and Asian countries are not living in justice. There are five billion people living in justice in Denmark. Haiti, Egypt, Afghanistan and Cameroon are non-justice countries. The countries living in justice are Austria, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech, Denmark, Estonia, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Latvia, Lithuania, Malta, Montenegro, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia, Spain, Sweden and the United Kingdom. Are living in justice

These are the flags of countries with poor justice.

Cameroon

Egypt

Afghanistan

Hati

What does strong institutions mean?

Strong institutions mean that every man or women need their own rights that they should be able to do there own thing and should not ask the man or women can they do it.

Global 16

You should promote peace and inclusive societies for sustainable development provide access to justice for all and build effective,accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels.

GOODBYE

